

Record producer speaks at FSW gallery

September 27, 2023

Grammy award-winning record producer, engineer and electronic music pioneer Robert Margouleff will speak at the Richard & Julia Rush Endowed ArtSPEAK@FSW lecture and Q&A in Florida Southwestern State College's Bob Rauschenberg Gallery.

A colleague of synthesizer and instrument inventor Robert Moog, Margouleff was also an early creative resource for Andy Warhol's "factory" and co-producer of "Ciao! Manhattan," the cult classic film and semi-autobiographical tale of 1960s counterculture actress, socialite and "Warhol superstar" Edie Sedgwick, FSW said.

In 1980, Margouleff produced DEVO's Freedom of Choice album which included the song "Whip It" and earned the band their platinum record award designation.

This concert-event sponsored by the Richard & Julia Rush Endowment is free and open to the public Sept. 29. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. with lecture and Q&A at 7-8:30 p.m. at 8099 College Parkway. |
